

If everyone acted just like me, what kind of world would it be?

Show Your Kindness At School

What act of kindness could you do at school if . . .

You see a sad classmate who is sitting alone on the playground.

---

---

You see a teacher carrying a large load of items and the door to their room is closed.

---

---

You notice that a classmate is always picked last for any games in gym.

---

---

You hear someone say a rude comment to the student beside you.

---

---

You hear someone make fun of a student's clothes.

---

---

You notice that your friends are starting to make fun of a smaller classmate about their height.
